

No Filter

Tues Dec 5th
7.30pm
The Telegraph
SW15 3TU

A discussion group for those of all faiths and none, where no questions are off limits and good company is assured.

7.30pm at the Telegraph, Putney on the first Tuesday of every Month.

Come and join us!

stories to hear Our experience of faith for good or ill

Our facilitator this evening is Dr John Moxon, a physicist and theologian whose unexpected faith journey led him far from the UK, to inspiring people, the strangest interests, and not a few scrapes.

Programme

View: memes and dreams

What's the point of religion in the modern world?

Troll: evil and suffering

Harm and healing in today's world

Post: stories to hear

Our experience of faith for good or ill

Swipe: sex and self

Relationships, faith and fulfilment

Like: trends and truth

Do religious claims make sense?

Friend: heart me

God's favourite click

Organised by Holy Trinity, Roehampton Methodist Church, and Peter Linacre and the staff of the Telegraph.
Contact: John Moxon, 07377066334 jrlmoxon@gmail.com; www.thetelegraphputney.co.uk 0208 7882011
The meetings will be in the function area upstairs. Unfortunately, there is no disabled access.